- A. Definition: A grievance is a claim by an employee or group of employees similarly situated or their representative that the employee has suffered harm by the interpretation, application or violation of policies, agreements, and administrative decisions affecting the employee and/or the employee's co-workers.
- B. Procedure
 - 1. A grievance to be considered under this procedure must be initiated in writing within thirty (30) calendar days from the time when the grievant knew or should have known of its occurrence.
 - a. Failure at any step of this procedure to communicate the decision of a grievance within the specified time limits shall permit the grievant to proceed to the next step. Failure at any step of this procedure to appeal a grievance to the next step within the specified time limits shall be deemed to be waiver of further appeal of the decision.
 - b. It is understood that any employee grievant shall, during and notwithstanding the pendency of any grievance, continue to observe all assignments and applicable rules and regulations of the Board until such grievance and any effect thereof shall have been duly determined.

5. Level IV - If the decision of the Board does not resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of the employee grievant and she/he wishes review by a third party, and if the matter pertains to the provisions of this Agreement, and if the Association determines that the matter should be reviewed further, it shall so advise the Board through the Superintendent within twenty (20) working days of receipt of the Board's decision. However, the Board's decision shall be final and binding concerning:

 - c. If the parties are unable to determine within ten (10) working days of the initial request for arbitration a mutually satisfactory arbitrator from the second submitted list, the American Arbitration Association may be requested by either party to designate an arbitrator. The arbitrator shall limit herself/himself to the issues submitted and shall consider nothing else. She/he can add nothing to nor subtract anything from the Agreement between the parties, or any policy of the Board of Education. The recommendations of the arbitrator shall be advisory.

- B. No employee shall be disciplined, reprimanded, reduced in rank or compensation or deprived of any employment advantage or be denied renewal of contract without just cause. Any such action asserted by the Board or any agent or representative thereof shall be subject to the grievance procedure within set forth.
- C. Whenever any employee is required to appear before the Superintendent, Board, or any committee or member thereof concerning any matters which could adversely affect the continuation of that person in employment or the salary or any increments pertaining thereto, she/he may request a written notice of the reasons for such meeting or interview and shall be entitled to have a representative of the Association present to advise her/him and represent her/him during such meeting or interview if she/he so desires. Any suspension of an employee pending charges shall be with pay.
